

Good night Gregg family,

It's almost Christmas season and I'm sure everyone is just doing the traditional stuff..buying ham, curtains, cleaning..Yes I meant to talk to you about that!!!

Those black and white photos you may think to get rid of or those diaries are not so old. Your trash is our treasure!! Your past is our history!! So don't forget to upload those photos of some not so old..□

Until then keep safe, love you all and yes...keep Jesus in the Christmas but most importantly your lives!!!
