

With the recent airport shootings in Fort Lauderdale, Florida it makes me wonder what are the emergency preparation for St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

I am not looking for anything to happen but with an International Airport anything can happen. So are there any plans in place for the AIA.

Are there any ambulances to deal with a grave emergency? How about emergency personnel and how soon would they get to location?

Just my ideas and concerns.

Godfrey