

I am about to take the step where I will be temporarily taken out of myself through GA. I will be out and away for 5 or more hours. However, your prayers and love will have me looking up again. I will always love you ...