

In the meantime, this is what happens in the United States and only the top of the iceberg. The Land of the free where dreamers come for a better life. The challenges are not seen unless there is inside scoop or you experience it first hand.

Say Something (We Won't Give Up On You)

It's time we all said something.#silentnomore

Posted by ZDoggMD on Wednesday, 30 May 2018

I have a story like many others and will keep the scars till death. There is a patient bill of rights for the patients and there is a care of rights for the employees. There is a Justice Department for the patients and an employee can face trial even of an allegation if God is not on your side.