

Sir Godfrey Gregg

From me to all my family and readers around the world I sent you greetings and ask that the goodness of God will be in each household.

You may feel battered and at times feeling down, but God wants you to know that your battles have already been won. Do not give up and say you are done. There is God who still answers prayers.

On behalf of my family especially my two little grandchildren LEMAR and SHAMMIE and our affiliated Facebook page and groups. The joys of the season and God's blessings.
