Black History Month 2019 in the United States of America began on Friday, February 1 and ends on Thursday, February 28

Today marks the beginning of BLACK HISTORY MONTH, it is a time to celebrate Black Culture and History, and to reflect on the many significant contributions that Black Caribbean National have made in helping build America.

Let us look at the path where we travelled to be in this position. That today will be history next year with hope, encouragement, and determination laying the stepping stones for those that are willing to follow into the steps of our elders.
