

Sir Godfrey Gregg

The risk is one of the qualities of any good decision. This is so because the decision itself is a risk. Therefore, making a decision literally means, taking a risk... In tracing the histories of successful men and women, the first thing to notice in their lives is a risk.

Blessed your mum, who carried you in a womb for nine months.

Do not expect people to invest in you if you're a lazy type.

Confidence can be learned – but not from a book. Confidence comes from living.

Anytime you're afraid to try something new...just Remember, amateurs built the Ark, professionals built the Titanic.

Be careful whose advice you heed to!

Laughing is good. so long as you are not insulting anyone.

With every challenge you face, there is an opportunity hidden that will lead you towards the path of wealth and abundance.

Do the best you can, with what you can, while you can, and success is inevitable.

I have learned that the harder you fall...the higher you bounce!

Never underestimate the power you have to take your life in a new direction.

Formal education and current position can define your worthiness. What makes you extraordinary is defined by your attitude towards others.

Like love, like talent, like any other virtue, like anything else in this life, happiness needs to be nurtured – this is the truth of the whole matter.

One should measure their life by the faith they embrace and the relationships they cherish

If your failure is not a lesson, it's indeed a failure.

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest accomplishment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.

The first place where self-esteem begins its journey is within us.

When you are angry, try your best to go to sleep, it keeps you away from speaking, writing and thinking while you are angry.

Dream big. Wake up. Take the first step into the unknown.

The beginning is always NOW.

Choose wisely.

There's only one thing that will make them stop hating you. And that's being so good at what you do that they can't ignore you.

Live your vision and demand your success.

You don't have to be great to get started but you have to get started to be great.

The difference between greed and ambition is a greedy person desires things he isn't prepared to work for.

You can lose your MONEY. You can lose your FRIENDS. You can lose your JOB and you can lose your MARRIAGE...and still recover...as long as there is HOPE. Never lose HOPE. People cannot hit what they do not aim for.

Your greatest self has been waiting for your whole life; don't make it wait any longer.

I may not be where I want to be but I'm thankful for not being where I used to be.

Never let fear hold you a prisoner.

Never let self-doubt hold you a prisoner.

Never let frustration hold you a prisoner.

Dedicate yourself to what gives your life true meaning and purpose; make a positive difference in someone's life.

Don't give up! It's not over. Every set-back bears with it the seeds of a come-back.

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be?

Learn everything you can, anytime you can, from anyone you can, there will always come a time when you will be grateful you did.

Too many of us are not living our dreams because we are living our fears.

The more you believed in yourself, the more you could trust yourself. The more you trust yourself, the less you compare yourself to others.

Don't chase people. Be yourself, do your own thing and work hard. The right people – the ones who really belong in your life – will come to yours. And stay.

You have come a long way and have won many battles. Whenever you're faced with a difficult or challenging situation, you'll overcome it. Yes, you can.

Today is a new day. Don't let your history interfere with your destiny! Let today be the day you stop being a victim of your circumstances and start taking action towards the life you want. You have the power and the time to shape your life. Break free from the poisonous victim mentality and embrace the truth of your greatness. You were not meant for a mundane or mediocre life!

Be where you are, stop over-thinking, and focus on what you are doing

You have come a long way and have won many battles.

Create a vision for the life you really want and then work relentlessly towards making it a reality.

You can have everything you want if you can put your heart and soul into everything you do.

Failures are the stairs we climb to reach success.

No one has ever achieved greatness without dreams.

I cannot compromise my respect for your love. You can keep your love, I will keep my respect.

Be with someone who inspires you and makes you be the best version of yourself.

The greatest step towards a life of simplicity is to learn to let go.

Let today be the day you stop being haunted by the ghost of yesterday. Holding a grudge and harbouring anger/resentment is poison to the soul. Get even with people...but not those who have hurt us, forget them, instead get even with those who have helped us.

It's okay to look back to see how far you've come but keep moving forward.

To have what you have never had, you have to do what you have never done.

Do not let arrogance go to your head and despair to your heart; do not let compliments go to your head and criticisms to your heart; do not let success go to your head and failure to your heart.

Do what you love, love what you do, and with all your heart give yourself to it.

Your only limitations are those you set upon yourself.

TO ALL GREGGS

When the going gets tough, put one foot in front of the other and just keep going. Don't give up.

When in a relationship, a real man doesn't make his woman jealous of others, he makes others jealous of his woman.

It's only after you've stepped outside your comfort zone that you begin to change, grow, and transform.

Let the improvement of yourself keep you so busy that you have no time to criticize others.

Cry. Forgive. Learn. Move on. Let your tears water the seeds of your future happiness.

Start each day with a positive thought and a grateful heart.

Believe in yourself. You are braver than you think, more talented than you know, and capable of more than you imagine.

Don't be pushed around by the fears in your mind. Be led by the dreams in your heart.

Animals do not respect their master's brother, but they do respect their brothers as masters.

If you have two shirts in your closet, one belongs to you and the other to the man with no shirt.

When silence greeted her question, she looked at Cain, for that was how he saw himself in that moment and in all the moments after his brother's murderer.

A friend forgives quicker than the enemy, and family forgives quicker than a friend.

Unity is a beast in itself. If a wolf sees two little boys playing in the woods on one side, and a big strong man on the other, it will go to the one who stands alone.

Human LOVE had a beginning and it has an end.

God's LOVE has no beginning and knows no end.

If you want somebody to say something good about you, you say something good about somebody else; they'll say something good about you. Cast your bread upon the water; it will return to you.

Always tell the truth, and you can tell it the same way every time.

You get nothing by arguing.

If you are a parent or a grandparent, make God a topic of conversation as often as opportunities come up. God is going to hold parents accountable for the job they with their children or the negligence or neglect of proper parenting. We must, therefore, start early with our children, we must be consistent in our words and actions, we must do what we tell them they should do, and by the time they're an adult, it should be second nature to live a life that is pleasing to God.

When a child has been trained to brush their teeth in a certain way from since youth, they'll likely stick to that same method throughout the rest of their life because they're basically on autopilot by that time. It's about ten times as hard to unlearn something as it is to learn something new in the first place, so if you are teaching your children about God and what He requires, and then live out those same instructions. This should make it more likely that they'll follow your example.

Always treat your children with respect. Never ridicule, mock, or laugh at your child's ideas, creations, or ambitions. The trust you desire to have when they are older must be established and maintained when they are young.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6). Train up-not beat up.
